

PAC Chair: Jody Yau has volunteered on the PAC Executive for the past 5 years. Four as PAC Chair and last year as Past PAC Chair. Jody trusts that PAC has the ability to make a difference to every child at NRP. She has one son in Grade 3 and another son in Grade 6.

Secretaries:

Treasurer: Jeanine Rhemtulla has two daughters at NRP, in Grades 1 and 4, and loves the educational approach of the school. She was on the Social Events Committee in the early NRP years, and now looks forward to managing spreadsheets.

Lunch Treasurer: Donghong Liu has been around since the school was at the portables at Queen Elizabeth. She took the role of Volunteer Coordinator last year and has continued to organize parent lunch volunteers. She is extremely organized and has a thorough knowledge of the lunch system! She has a daughter in Grade 6.

DPAC Rep: Rob Peregoodoff was on our PAC Executive as Member-At-Large and he was the DPAC Chair last year. We are grateful to him that he is still involved in NRP PAC as he brings incredible ideas to help the school move forward. Rob has a son in Grade 8.

Lunch Committee Chair: Beth Krisciunas is continuing her role again this year as Lunch Chair. She puts in hours upon hours of work behind the scenes so we as parents can order lunches (and help fund raise for the school). Beth has a daughter in Grade 4.

Parent Ed. Committee Chair: Fei Liu has two kids at NRP, one in Kindergarten and the other in Grade 4. With a master degree of Adult Education and more than four years of work experience as the Executive Assistant to the CEO at two large organizations in Canada, she is confident to make the contribution to the PAC with her passion and expertise.

Social Events Committee: Natalie Jatskevich has been at NRP since it was located at the portables by Queen Elizabeth School. She has been running the Walking School Bus program for NRP since the school opened and she has a daughter in Grade 6.

Marcio Albuquerque is new to NRP, he has a son in Grade 6. He professionally works as a Trademark Manager and owns an arts exhibitions (scenography) stage company. He has being an adult volunteer in the Scout Movement since 1992 and has been a boy scout since 1982. He has Already assisted in the organization of several Jamboree (scout's meeting). Marcio is looking forward to assisting Natalie in the Social Events Committee.

Social Media Committee: Jessie Zhang has a daughter in Grade 4 and Alan Zhao has a son in Grade 2, they both have strong computer backgrounds and they'd like to continue serving PAC this year.

Volunteer Coordinator:

Members at Large: Hisham Zerriffi has 2 kids at the school, and he was the PAC Treasurer for 2 years. It is so grateful that he could remain as PAC Executive to support the team.

Immediate Past Chair: Sharon Yu has a daughter in Grade 5, she was the PAC Chair last year and this is her 3rd year serving NRP as a PAC Executive member and Sharon is happy to stay as PAC Executive to continue making contribution to the NRP families.
